On January 6, 2015 at 7:15 PM Merrimack Police responded to a Burglar alarm at Campers Inn, 35 Robert Milligan Parkway. When officers arrived at the scene they located a male subject, who was identified as Marc Gingras, just outside the entrance to the business. Upon checking the building it was discovered it had been burglarized. Officers were able to follow footprints from the recent snow squall from the building to where officers located Gingras. Gingras was taken into custody and charged with Burglary. During a search of Gingras, a small quantity of the controlled drug, Marijuana was located.

Gingras was transported to the Merrimack Police Department where he was processed. He was later held at the Hillsborough County House of Corrections (Valley Street Jail) on $5,000.00 Cash bail. He is scheduled to appear in the 9th Circuit Court, Merrimack Division on January 7, 2015.

NH State Police Trooper Michael Cedrone assisted at the scene with his K-9.

Charges: Fraudulent Use of a Credit Card

Court Date: January 28, 2015

MERRIMACK, NH:

On Thursday December 11, 2014, Merrimack Police responded to the Merrimack Premium Outlet to investigate two individuals who had purchased merchandise using a stolen credit card. On arrival to the mall, employees were able to identify the two males and point them out to police. After a brief investigation, the two were arrested and charged with Fraudulent Use of a Credit Card.

Police were also able to obtain a search warrant for the vehicle the two had arrived to the mall in. Upon searching it, over one hundred fraudulent credits were found. The investigation is continuing and police expect more charges to be forthcoming.

Both were released on bail and a trial for the current charges is scheduled for January 28, 2015 in the 9th Circuit Court, Merrimack Division.
